

INTERNATIONAL PEACEMAKER SEATTLE PRESBYTERY 2011

INTRODUCING ARDA AGHAZARIAN

International Peacemakers are leaders who are engaged in peacemaking in their own areas of the world. They are invited by the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) to visit Presbyterians in the United States and to help us understand the peace and justice concerns of others around the world. International Peacemakers help Presbyterians broaden their view of the world, deepen their understanding of peace and justice issues in our own communities, and faithfully follow Jesus in ministries extending compassion, seeking peace, and doing justice.

AVAILABLE DATES

SEPT. 28-OCT. 2

† Bible Study or Small Groups
† Youth or College Age Groups
† Guest Speaker at worship on
World Communion Sunday, Oct. 2

ARDA will be speaking and sharing her work at the Fall Gathering of Presbyterian Women., Sat., Oct. 1, Japanese Presbyterian Church.

Arda is an Armenian Palestinian Christian, born and raised in the Old City of Jerusalem. She studied at Birzeit University in the West Bank after the Second Uprising "Intifada," a phase which brought forth difficult questions and an interest in human rights and conflict resolution. She has taken various courses in media and film, and worked as a producer and presenter for a radio station that aimed to build bridges between Palestinians and Israelis. She is the Media and Advocacy Coordinator at the YWCA of Palestine. She also serves on the World YWCA Board of Directors.
